

From: <MDDuffy@

Date: Mon, 27 Jul 2009 12:41:21 -0400

To:

Subject: Duff

Hi:

Thanks again for your advice Friday.

I am to speak to Irving Gerstien this evening at the Senate golf ourney banquet about my expanded role with the party.

He says, "what do I want/need?" and he'll make it happen.

(I suggested they make me a min without portfolio so I get a staff, car and more resources to deal with the pr fallout etc. he laughed and said he didn't think THAT was within the realm of the Cons fund.

So my question is; what do I demand?

(That the Cons fund hire my private company, and I use that cash to hire additional staff to assist with these gigs?)

Should I have a separate meeting with Marjory?

Should I request a one on one with Stephen?

To what end?

=Mike

at home

27/07/2009

----- Forwarded Message

From:

Date: Mon, 27 Jul 2009 19:56:12 -0400

To: <MDDuffy@>

Subject: Re: Duff

I would keep the discussion with Irving. Expanding it at this time would attract too much attention.

Any money, staff, resources paid for by the fund should be done by the fund. Keep it out of your company and office budget or it will hurt you down the road. If he can set up a travel budget for you at the fund and support a staffer, fantastic.

What you really need now is travel paid for by them so you don't get in trouble or run out of points. Have a billing acct, knows to book certain trips to them and not you etc. Don't take a credit card, just expense to them.